POSTMASTERS INSTRUCTED.

Judge Tyner, the Assistant Attorney General, Proposes to See That the Recently Passed Law is Fully Enforced. House and Senate Proceedings.

Washington, Oct. 1.—Judge Tyner, the assistant attorney general for the postoffice department, has about completed the instructions to postmasters comprehensive than is generally sup-posed. In prohibiting lotteries, it also prohibits all schemes for distributing paper.

Judge Tyner has not as yet made a ruling on this question, but it is only a sample of the various problems that are presented for his decision.

Investigating Papers Secret.

Washington, Oct. 1.—Assistant Secretary Wharton said that the correspondence between the department of tate and Minister Mizner, in regard to the killing of Gen. Barrundia, on board the killing of Gen. Barrundia, on board the steamor Acapulco, would not be sent to congress for several days. The correspondence is not yet in proper shape to lay before congress, and it is possible that the matter will not be sent in at this session. State department officials decline to say anything definite on the subject

As the department has the right to withhold it from the public on the ground that it would be "incompatible with the public interest" it is possible that they will take advantage of the language of the joint resolution. There are few instances on record where the department of state has refused to comply with a request from congress of this kind, but it is believed that Secretary Blaine having taken a different view of the correspondence than Mr. Wharton, will retain the papers until they are complete.

Proceedings of the Senate and House.

Washington, Oct. 1.—The senate yesterday concluded the debate on the tariff bill and agreed to the conference report (33 to 27), Messrs. Plumb, Paddock and Pettigrew voting in the negative. The senate passed house bill (with verbal amendments) to promote the administration of justice in the army. Conference report on the signal service bill was agreed to. House bill to enable the postmaster general to test free delivery system in small towns, was passed.

The house passed the senate bill to protect settlers on certain lands in Florida; relinquishing certain lands to San Francisco. The bill to establish a uniform standard of grain was taken up, but objection which threatened to block all business developed, and it was withdrawn. A number of bills were taken from the calendar and passed, and the house adjourned at 3:45 p. m.

G. A. R. Matters.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Gen. Wheelock Veasey, commander-in-chief, has just filled one of the most important offices in the Grand Army of the Republic by the appointment of Judge William Lochren as judge advocate general. Judge Lochren is on the bench at Minneapolis, Minn., and is recognized as one of the ablest jurists in that state or in any other, no one standing higher in the northwest.

He is as eminent in character as he is distinguished in ability. He is president of the Minnesota commandery of the Loyal Legion; his service in the field was with the First Minnesota reginent, whose services were particularly and Fireman Dunlap, of the coal train, and Fireman Dunlap, of the coal train, the first Minnesota reginer Bigelow, of the passenger train, and Fireman Dunlap, of the coal train. distinguished at Gettysburg. Judge Lochren is an Irish-American who has taken an active interest in the cause of Ireland, and is a Democrat in politics.

Dismissed from the Service.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Complaints have recently been received at the department of state from citizens of Santiago, Cuba, charging United States Vice Consul James Broad with neglect of duty. It is understood that Assistant Secretary Wharton, upon investigation, found the charges sustained and had ordered his dismissal from the service.

The Wholesale Druggists.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 .- The National Wholesale Druggists' association, now holding a convention here, listened to the report of President Von Schaack yesterday morning. Later on the report of the secretary was read. The afternoon and evening was occupied in a discussion of proprietary medicines.

Fast Express Ditched.

New York, Oct. 1.—A special to The Herald from St. John, N. B., says word reached there last night that train wreckers had ditched the fast Canadian Pacific express from Halifax, near Anagance, sixty miles from St. John. The road is blocked and definite information is lacking. What comes indicates that sleepers were fastened on the rails and the engine was smashed to fragments. The baggage car was also smashed but ously injuring William Bailey, brake-there is yet no word of fatalities. An man, bruising Isaac Peterson and R. E. attempt was recently made to wreck a Partleow, and wrecking a dozen or train in the same locality.

TOO LATE IN THE SEASON To Be of Any Use to the Proprietors of Summer Resorts.

WHITMAN, Mass., Oct. 1.—Three of Whitman's respected and truthful citizens are sure they saw the sea serpent off Brant Rock, Marshfield, a few days ago, and their story is substantiated by many eye-witnesses living in that seaport town.

George Edson and his son, P. H. Edson, while lying off the rock, saw some large object ahead. It appeared to be a long snake with its head above the water line

Mr. Edson is a well known gunner, and is considered a crack shot, while fear is a feeling to which he is a perfect stranger. He gave chase to the monster and succeeded in throwing a rope about its head. its head.

By this time a large and excited crowd had gathered on the beach, attacted by the strange sight, among them being J. M. Whidden, an expert shot from this posed. In prohibiting lotteries, it also prohibits all schemes for distributing prizes by chances, and applies to the church fair as well as to the great Louisiana Lottery company.

An advertisement for a church fair, which speaks of a raffle or anything of the kind, would be excluded from the mails.

Judge Tyner has had referred to him for decision a question as to whether a newspaper published in Texas that has a guessing scheme can be admitted to the mails. The paper offers a prize to the lady who will guess the name of the most popular man, and all the details for voting, etc., are printed in the paper.

Judge Tyner has not as yet made a ruling on this question, but it is only a sample of the various problems that are presented for his decision.

M. Whidden, an expert shot from this place.

He hastily put off from shore through the surf, and soon ranged alongside this monster of the deep. Both he and Mr. Edson fired charge after charge into the grisly-looking head, but the heavy shot appeared to have no serious effect.

The painter of the boat was all the time connected with the monster's head, and Whidden's boat was fastened to the stern of Mr. Edson's boat. The monster was gliding meanwhile through its long, snake-like tail glistening in the sun-light, and people on the shore got a good view. It became evident that with the weapons they possessed they could not overcome the huge monster, and the rope was cut. The serpent immediately dived, exposing a portion of its body. The men in the boat and those on shore assert that the serpent was at least thirty-five feet in length, and when it glided that the serpent was at least thirty-five feet in length, and when it glided through the water it left a wake like that of a large boat.

FEARFUL EXPLOSION.

A Blast Furnace Entirely Destroyed by the Reversion of Air.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 1 .-- Yesterday morning when men mere making repairs in the tower of the Clinton blast furnace, on West Carson street, owing to the reon West Carson street, owing to the reversion of air, the large air receiver exploded with terrible force. The front of the furnace was almost wholly shattered, while the engine room and machinery were completely wrecked.

Every window for nearly a square around was shattered, and in several dwelling houses the plastering fell from ceitings and walls. Owing to the confusion the escape of the workmen in and about the tower from injury or death is about the tower from injury or death is remarkable. It is thought that the air receiver had become filled with natural gas and when the current was reversed beame ignited and bursted. Ten thou-sand dollars will probably cover the damage to property.

Children Bitten by a Mad Dog.

Children Bitten by a Mad Dog.

PERU, Ind., Oct. 1.—The second maddog scare in the past month occurred in this city the other evening. A dog of the Spitz breed badly bit the hands of the two children of Jacob Edwards, aged 2 and 4 years. The dog was a household pet. The celebrated madstone of Mrs. Roe was immediately procured, and adhered firmly to the wounds for a considerable length of time, finally dropping off. This was repeated with similar results, only in a lesser degree, and the poison is believed to have been successfully extracted. The dog was immediately killed.

This does mad to raise the sum of $60,000 for the purpose. This resolution will be acted upon at a meeting next Monday when it is expected the form of memorial will be determined.

AN EXPLODED MIND READER.

A Chicago Doctor Duplicates the Wonderful Johnstone Tricks.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—A morning paper publishes what purports to be an expose of the tricks by which Paul Alexander Johnstone, of St. Paul, performs his al-Johnstone, of St. Paul, performs his alleged mind-reading tests. The disbeliever in Johnstone is Dr. Gatscell, of this city, editor of The Medical Era. Dr. Gatscell submitted to apparently the same test conditions as did Johnstone and under these conditions went blindfolded up and down stairs and found and wrote a designated word in a book.

He then showed how it was done. The gloves were folded over the eyes by an Extra Force to Prevent a Lynching.

St. Augustine, Fla., Oct. 1.—Alexander Campbell, who recently came here from Baltimore, shot and killed Miss Mamie Joseph, daughter of a prominent merchant, yesterday, because she refused to marry him. He fired three shots, the first inflicting a slight wound, the second going wild, and the third penetrating his victim's heart.

Miss Joseph was chatting with her mother and another lady when Campbell appeared with a revolver. The young lady first toward a neighbor's yard when she sank upon a flower bed overcome by fright and the effect of the wound inflicted by the first bullet. Campbell followed her, and fired the fatal shot while standing over the prostrate girl. He is being guarded by an extra force at the jail to prevent lynching.

He then showed how it was done. The gloves were folded over the eyes and a bandage tied tight over them. By lifting the eyebrows, this bandage was worked upward on the forehead, then the heavy cloth hood was put over his head, and by pulling a couple of strings it was parted in front, leaving plenty of room to see through. Then the black veil, which hid the features, but which could be plainly seen through, was drawn over, and the preparations were complete for "mind reading," as Dr. Gatschell claims it is done by Johnstone. The directions and distances to be traveled over, the page in the book, and the letters in the words chosen were traced in the air with the finger in front of the performer in accordance with know how Johnstone performed the safe opening trick, but he is of the opinion that it is merely a trick.

Aged Lovers Wedded.

Aged Lovers Wedded.
COATSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 1.—A notable wedding took place in this city Monday evening. The Rev. J. R. Barnes, of Marietta, O., the father of Mr. Charles R. Barnes, the Chicago publisher, was married to Mrs. E. T. Drew, of Evansville. Mr. Barnes is 81 years old and Mrs. Drew is 75. Nearly a helf centrary ago the Rev. Mr. Barnes a half century ago the Rev. Mr. Barnes was pastor of the Presbyterian church in this city and Mrs. Drew was one of his parishioners. The couple were early lovers. The wedding has been the sensation of the day in this city, and furnished lots of gossip.

EVENING BULLETIN

DAILY EX EPP SUNDAY. ROSSER & McCARTHY. Proprietors

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1890

THE Constitutional convention may abolish the office of Jailer. In that event the Sheriff will have charge of the county prison.

EVERY Democrat in the Ninth district should go to the polls in November and cast a vote for Paynter. Let's all see how large we can make the majority.

THE Republican journals that congratthe tariff on binding twine was removed, have been as mum as a mouse since the duty was restored.

An exchange says: "The Repub ican party has never added an acre to the ter-States out of "Territorial mining camps" they have proved a big success.

UNDER the present Constitution Sheriffs have to be elected every two years. The Constitutional convention may extend the term to four years and make Sheriffs and their Deputies ineligible for re-election.

It is going to take the Constitutional convention a long time to fix up a new Constitution at the present rate of doing business. Nothing was accomplished yesterday, and the delegates voted to go to Louisville to-morrow on a frolic.

It begins to look like too many politicians and rich men worked their way into the Constitutional convention. The people didn't send the delegates there for ing markets in the United States, to supply any monkey business, and the sooner they realize that and get down to work the better will it be for them hereafter.

THE grand total of the appropriations by the present Republican Congress for the fiscal year 1890-91 is $462,-939,956, an increase of $40,313,613 over the appropriations by the last Congress. That doesn't look much like the G.O.P. believes in an economical administration of the National Government.

THE Independents of Pennsylvania denounce Quay and Delamater in language that is "plain, outspoken and emphatic." It begins to look like Pattison will wipe out that big Republican majority as he did some years ago. But why shouldn't he? He is a man respected by all, while his opponent is openly charged as being a corruptionist and the tool of corporations.

WHEN the Republican Senate voted to put binding twine on the free list a week or so ago, a great many Republican journals "put their foot in it," so to speak They congratulated the farmers, told them the twine trust had been dealt a blow, and that hereafter the wheatgrowers would not be compelled to pay tribute to this monopoly on every sheaf o grain harvested. But lo! and behold, the Republicans of the House have had the duty on twine restored. The article was not allowed to remain on the free list. Will these Republican journal bave the cheek now to assure the farmers that the tariff is not a tax?

A PARAGRAPH on the editorial page of the New York Tribune says: "In an orchard near Visalia, Cal., 1,102 pounds of prunes were recently gathered from one tree, which is six years old. Other trees in the same orchard are equally prolific and the product of one acre has brought $1,900." And yet the tariff bill doubles the protective duty on prunes. The Tribune also quotes the San Francisco Chronicle as estimating that the fruit shipments from California to the East this year will reach 10,000 car loads, or 200,000,000 pounds. It says: "At an average price of 5 cents a pound-which may be considered low, as the above embraces a vast quantity of dried fruit, which sells at from 8 to 20 cents a pound -our surplus export will bring the State at least $10,000,000.

THE Senate has a deep interest in large capitalists, but none at all in small ones. It voted to limit the sugar bounty to producers of 500 pounds or more. This leaves most of the maple sugar producers and some of the sorghum sugar producers with no bounty, while the large producers are to get 2 cents a pound. People of small means have no rights that Republican Senators are bound to respect. On motion of Senator Sherman the Senate ties are mountain counties, and are govlimited the drawback on exports of burlaps to quantities worth not less than $10. A New York linen merchant said of this: "We sell a great many small exporters burlaps, where the duty on any bill does not amount to $10. It is a common occurrence to have bills where the duty is $5, $6 and $7, and by the provision of Senator Sherman's amendment, these dealers will receive no drawback, and ders were brought into existence because are, therefore, placed at a manifest dis- the legislation of the past thirty years advantage in competing with large corporations whose purchases are more exten- munities, and unduly favorable to manusive."-National Democrat.

FROM FOOLS' PARADISE.

The Courier-Journal's Comments on Congressman McKinley's Closing Tariff Speech.

In making the closing arguments on the Conference report Mr. McKinley said: "Gentlemen on the other side had said that the bill would not increase the demand for a single grain of wheat, or a bushel of corn. or appound of meat."

Mr. Blaine put the argument against the McKinley bill in that form; is he to be referred to by the Republican leaders as a gentleman on the other side?

Mr. McKinley continued:

"They forgot that when the bill became law and the new industry of manufacturing ulated the farmers a few days ago when our own tiu is established, employment would be furnished to a large number of men, which would mean the support of 50,000 people. And these 50,000 people would be new cousumers and thereby create a demand for the products of the farmers of the West.

New consumers; what are new consumers? Infants may be described as ritory of the Union." But in making new consumers. McKinley's 50,000 new consumers are "consuming" the the products of American farmers today. No tariff bill can create a body of 50,000 new consumers. Does the gen tleman from Ohio mean that these 50,000 bave grown up on air? Or will he bring $50, or imprisoned not less than thirty them from abroad; 50,000 pauper laborers to be supported by a tax of $10,000,-

"This bill recognizes the principle which was found in the Morrill act-a principle on which this country has risen to be the first manufacturing nation in the world. The gentlemen on the other side would tax the people of this country to make an income for the Government; the Republican party would tax the product of other people seek the necessary revenues of the Government.'

We are certain William McKinley, of Ohio, is the only living statesman who believes that by a tariff on imports we force the foreigner to pay the expenses of Government.

If this 'theory" is true, why can not the Ways and Means Committee abolish all internal taxes, double our import duties and make the fool foreigners pay not half but every dollar required to meet Government expenses?

Mr. McKinley opposes a service pension; but if we can make the foreigner pay for it, the Courier-Journal is in favor of a service pension.

If the foreigner pays the duty, then we ought to abolish the free list.

If the foreigner pays the duty, it is the height of folly to remove the sugar tax; we should not consent to relieve the foreigners of a tax of $60,000,000 as long as a dollar is derived from internal taxes.

But the Ohio gentleman is as incovsistent as he is incoherent; having boasted that the Republican teriff was a patent device to make the foreigners pay our taxes, he then claimed the gratitude of the country because the Republicans had enlarged the free list. "This bill," he said, "if it becomes a law, would put on the provisions of this section may be prothe free list one-half of all the proude s which the United States imported, the like of which was never known in any tariff bill passed by the Congress of the United States. Under the Mills bill only 40 per cent of the foreign importations were placed on the free list."

If the fundamental propositions he lays down to the effect that by a tariff on imports foreigners can be made to pay the expenses of our Government, then an enlargement of the free list is high treason.

One can not take the Ohio gentleman seriously. Each speech he makes reveals some new depth of ignorance. When he is silent he is most persuasive; when he speaks he gives away himself with his cause. Never before in the history of representative Government have the revenue affairs of Government been confided to a man so profoundly, so irremediably, so irreconcilably ignorant of the first laws of industry and finance and com- during the season, was made by Mr. J. The Tenth (Ky.) District.

The Republicans of the Tenth district nominated Hon. Robert C. Hill, of Lee County, for Congress. The nomination was tendered Dr. A. H. Stuart, of Preston, but he declined. Mr. Hill, the nominee, has represented Lee and Estill counties in the Lower House of the Legislature for the last two terms. The district is composed of the counties of Breathitt, Floyd, Clark, Elliott, Estill, they kill, there would be a big howl-Johnson, Knott, Lee, Magoffin, Menifee, Montgomery, Martin, Morgan, Pike, Powell and Wolfe, and is considered Democratic by 2,500. Most of the counerned by personal as much as by political preferences. The Democratic nominee, Hon. J. W. #### Paynter and the Alliance.

The Farmers' Alliance and kindred orhas been adverse to agricultural comfacturing communities, compelling the former to "protect" the latter. For this order of things the Republican party alone is responsible.

The Democratic party has been opposing the dogma of protection for ninety years, and if the Farmers' Alliance would have relief from unjust legislation it must look to the Democratic party for that re-

The Alliance of Eastern Kentucky appears to have been captured by the Republicans, and it is proposed to run an Alliance candidate for Congress against Mr. Paynter, who, in Congress, has shown himself to be an attorney of the people as against the protected classes. This is very foolish on the part of the leaders of the Alliance movement. - Louisville

THE National House of Representatives has passed by "unanimous consent," a bill that "provides that any person or persons who shall use the National flag, either by printing, painting or affixing on said flag, or otherwise attaching to the same, any advertisement for public display, or private gain, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof in the District Court of the United States shall be fined in any sum not exceeding days, or both, at the discretion of the

THE ANTI LOTTERY LAW.

Its Provisions Too Plain to be Misunderstood-Its Penalty a Heavy One.

The anti-lottery law recently passed by Congress will serve to put a check on lot teries, gift enterprises, raffles and all other similar interprises. Its provisions are very plain, and the penalty for a violation of the law is pretty severe. The first and principal clause of the new law reads as follows:

No letter, postal card or circular containing any lottery, so-called gift concern or other similar enterprise offering prizes dependent upon lot or chance, or concerning schemes devised for the purpose of obtaining money or property under false pretenses, and no list of drawings at any lottery or similar scheme, and no lottery ticket or part thereof, and no check, draft, bill, money, postal note or money order for the purchase of any ticket, tickets or part thereof, or of any share or any chance in any such lottery or gift enterprise, shall be carried in the mail or delivered at or through any postoffice or branch thereof, or by any letter-carrier; nor shall any newspaper, circular, pamphlet or publication of any kind containing any advertisement of any lottery or gift enterprise of any kind offe ing prizes dependent upon lot or chance, or containing any list of prizes awarded at the drawings of any such lottery or gift enterprise. whether said list is of any part or of all of the drawing, be carried in the mail or delivered by any postmaster or letter-carier. Any person who shall knowingly cause to be debe carried by mail, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be punished by a fine of not more than (10) or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such flue and imprisonment for each offense. Any person violating any of ceeded against by information or indictment, and tried and punished, either in the district at which the unlawful publication was mailed or to which it is carried by mail for delivery, according to the direction thereon, or at which it is caused to be delivered by mail to the person to whom it is addressed

For the Farmer.

Isaac Shelby, Jr., of Boyle County, has sold his coming clip from between three and four handred sheep at 25 cents per pound straight through, no pick.

An exchange announces that the best grades of cattle are fifty to sixty cents per hundred lbs. higher at Chicago than finest in the State. they were twelve months ago. Heavy hogs are twenty-five cents higher than then, while light weights show no quotable difference.

The Danville Advocate says: "The largest sale of fat cattle in Boyle County, merce as the Hon. William McKinley of C. Caldwell, to an agent for Goldsmith, of New York, last week, at $4.25. He sold 275 head at these figures, with the exception of one load at four cents. They were weighed the early part of the week and averaged close to 1,600 pounds.

The Richmond Climax says: "H. H. Colyer has lost $350 worth of sheep, ki'led by dogs, within the past year. Nine dogs were recently killed on his place, but that doesn't pay for the sheep." If the Legislature should tax the mangy curs to pay for the sheep not from the curs, but from their own-

FLEXIBLE, DAINTY, HEALTHFUL.

Cork Sole Turned Shoes

Are as flexible and dainty as the finest turn, and are the easiest walking Shoe made, the cork acting as a cushion to the foot. The cork being secured in a pocket, thus forming a part of the Shoe, it is impossible for it to work loose or break up. They are also the most healthful Shoe, as CORK IS A NON-CONDUCTOR OF HEAT AND MOISTURE. It prevents the warmth of the bottom of the foot from radiating and escaping in cold weather, and in warm weather it prevents the heat from the pavements from penetrating the foot.

wearing our Cork Soled Turned Shoes needn't fear cold, hot, damp or rough walks. They are as flexible and dainty a Shoe as the lightest turned Shoe made. Come and see them; they are a thing of beauty and comfort. Come and see, also, the largest retail stock of Boots and Shoes in the State. Selling at 25 per cent. less than anybody else sells them.

Ireland Not the Only Country in Want.

FOR ITALY IS NO BETTER OFF.

Poverty Daily Increasing, Which is Fast Leading to Brigandage and Lawlessness-Rejoicing in Germany Over the Expiration of the Anti-Socialist Laws. Other Foreign News.

LONDON, Oct. 1.-Ireland is not the only country menaced with serious want. In Italy the government has been informed by several prefects that there is serious apprehension of trouble in their provinces from the number of unemployed workmen who live in the utmost misery. In some of the provincial towns the men have become troublesome and have done some mischief, and they threaten to do more unless work is provided for them.

In Calabria a large number of peasants assembled in arms and shouted for the pope and the priests. They were dispersed by a detachment of carabiners. The people in many districts feel keenly the transfer of the control of pious foundations from the clergy to the civil authorities. The priests knew the poor more intimately than the civil officers do, and they were better acofficers do, and they were better acquainted with the needs of the community. The situation, in some respects, is not dissimilar from that which spects, is not dissimilar from that which followed the abolition of the monasteries in England, when the roads were thronged with beggars and the relief given by the monks was succeeded by the stocks and the whipping post.

The serious increase in Italian brigandage and general lawlessness is thought to be attributable in no small degree to the increasing poverty of the the masses, which forces many of the more turbulent of the unemployed into paths of crime. paths of crime.

Anti-Socialist Law Expired.

BERLIN, Oct. 1.-There was much excitement in Germany yesterday and yesterday evening over the expiration of the anti-Socialist law, the Socialists indulging in general rejoicing. Thirty Socialists who had been in exile arrived in Berlin yesterday afternoon and received an ovation.

Public meetings were held in several halls, all being crowded. Many illumi-mations appeared in the streets in the evening in honor of the occasion. Numerous processions were formed, and some of them became disorderly and were dispersed by the police, but no vio-lence or injury resulted. At Hamburg nineteen exiles returned and were en-thusiastically greeted. Similar scenes were enacted in all the large cities.

Japanese Government Denounced. YOKOHAMA, Oct. 1.—A public meeting has been held here, at which a number of prominent Japanese made speeches denouncing the government for conceding the right of trial by judges other than native judges. The danger to England's industrial supremacy will begin only when free trade opens to by the audience, and the ex-consul of markets of the world. Great Britain was threatened with created intense public excitement.

Iron Workers' Troubles in Scotland. LONDON, Oct. 1.—The terms demanded by the workmen have been definitely declined by the iron masters of Scotland. Support is pledged to the striking Scotch workers by the iron workers of Cumberland, provided the former insist upon eight-hour shifts. The Glasgow pig iron market has been strengthened by the apparent futility of all efforts at a settlement of the trouble. a settlement of the trouble.

Murdered All on Board.

London, Oct. 1.—Information has reached here of the massacre by natives of Capt. Hedley, owner of the cutter crew of the vessel, while engaged in fishing for pearls off the coast of New Guinea. After the murder of all on board the Papuan savages looted and scuttled the cutter.

End of a Suit That Has Attracted Universal Attention.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 1 .- A suit that has attracted universal attention in this city for some days past has just been terminated. In May last Charles Sheldon, a prominent colored man of this city, visited a variety of entertainments on Eugene Robinson's floating ticket to the colored gallery. He refused it and demanded a reserved seat, the best one in the house, for which he was charged $100. Sheldon left the boat and went up town and pawned sufficient jewelry for strikers refused to allow them to go to the amount, returned, purchased a reserved seat ticket and entered, but remained only a few moments. He left and immediately filed suit for $100, and idle. damages in like amount under the civil rights law. The case has been on trial for the past five days, some of the ablest lawyers in the state being pitted against each other. The jury found for the defendant Robinson.

PURCELL, I. T., Oct. 1.—Three burglars, armed with rifles, entered the store of J. H. Carey & Company last night. One held Carey and two clerks at bay with his rifle, while the others plundered the store. As the robbers were dered the store. As the robbers were about to leave Carey ran toward the office when the robbers fired on him killing him instantly.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

PHANNON.

Preliminary to the funeral ermon by Elder W. W. Hall, of William Forman, on Sunday Sept. 28th, at Shannon Church in the presence of an overflowing house Rev. Dr. Anderson read the 90th Psaim, followed by a fervent, earnest prayer. This was a pplemented with a sad sweet solo, "Abide With Me," by the organist Miss Bland.

Dr. Hall'stext was I Peter chapter, 1, 23, 24, and 25th verses, "Beilg born igain, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God which liveth and abideth forever." The speaker gaven new interpretation to "being born again," death becoming the medium of transfer to a state and scenes of unsuffering life and undying glory at God's medius of transfer to a state and scenes of unsuffering life and undying glory at God's right hand. The death of the body was the bith of the soul. Many were struck with the extreme felicity of Eider Hall's 'characteriztions of his veter an friend and old parishoner. Dr. Anderson followed in a brick tribute to his gener us neighbor and personal friend.

To diversify the 'olemn occasion, with much taste the organist introduced convolatory songs at fitting intervals, the music blending in thrilling harmony with sympathetic emotions of the assembly.

William Forman was a typical Kentuckian—brave, unselfish and philanthropic. Hewas borning. Mason, near Washington, where he lived 41 years, the remaining forty-tour on Desha Farm—Shannon. He was the last of six biothers and three sisters of the family of Joseph and Mary Forman. He married Phobe Glenn February 18th, 829, and enjoyed 56 years of married life. He ascribed all his worldly prosperity to his good, faithful and economical wife. As Eider Hall puts it "she was the Queen of the Realm"

He was a liberal contributor to the erection of church buildings—"ardis, Shannon, Fairview and Forman's thape came in largely for his benefactions, and the pastors thereof we're never forgotter as both ministers to-day bore cheerful testimony.

never forgotte: as both ministers to-day bore cheerful testimony.

The scriptures say "the poor you have always with you." This was literally true of Mr. Forman, and right well did nedo his duty. The widow and orphans were visited in their afflictions—the naked were clothed and the hungry were fed from his abundance, so much so, that one of his beneficiaries said 'Mr. Forman was the clevere t man I ever knew.'

His lineal decendants consist of two surviving daughters, seven grandsons and two great granddaughters. The Forman casket was covered with black

The Forman casket was covered with black broad cloth, oxydized silver handles, silk plush bar, decorated with anchor, crown, cross, pillow and sickle, artistically wrought in Mareschal Neil and tube reses. The sicale rested on a shest of ripened wheat. "At Rest" in violets was the motto on the pillow." "cur Father," was inscribed on the silver breast plate. Over file hundred persons viewed the remains in the Shannon Church, which were quite life-like, after the impressive services were over. An intelligent and discriminating citizen of Maysville said to the writer as we were saying our facewells at the grave, "I ave never in my life read or witnessed a funeral occasion where everything that were said and done in speech, in ong, in burial with so much appropriateness."

at the instance of the German government, have shown, according to the allegations of German officials, that almost all the meat which is killed in them is unhealthy, and therefore Germany is considering whether she ought not also prohibit imports of American beef as well as pork, as being almost equally unwholesome. Of course, it stands to reason that all this is polities rather than facts; in other words, that the government here desires to get up some good reason for shutting out American beef for economical considerations. It is not believed that anything will come of this rather blundering attempt at a scare."

Strike Growing Serious.

RICHMOND, Mo., Oct. 1.—The strike of the coal miners near Camden, which has been in operation about five weeks, is assuming a serious aspect. The strikpalace and wanted to purchase a ticket ing men object to the system of supply of admission. The sellers offered him a stores of the company which they claim are run on the "pluck me" plan. Will be held on the grounds at Germantown

OCTOBER 1, 2, 3 ≥ 4.

It is a well known fact, both at home and abroad, that the premiums awarded at the "Old Reliable" Germantown Fair are the most highly prized of any in the State. The premium stock throughout Kentucky and Ohio all come to Germantown to test the question of supremacy. This fact has gained for us the soubriquet, "The Court of Appeals Fair of Kentucky." New ideas prevail. New features predominate. Every day a banner day.
